THE AIBs 2023 THE CELEBRATIONS

HOLY IS THE TRUE LIGHT AND PASSING WONDERS

The winners of the 19th annual AIBs will be announced during the gala evening taking place in central London on 10 November 2022. The AIBs gala takes place in our spectacular venue at Church House Westminster for what we are sure will be a very special evening.

The annual AIBs gala dinner offers a remarkable opportunity to meet journalists, editors, producers, directors and executives from broadcasters and production companies from all over the world. That's because each year, we are honoured to receive guests from across the world who join us for an evening of conversation, cuisine and celebration. The gala evening is a great place to renew contacts and to establish new links with colleagues from around the world, to share ideas and debate the worlds of journalism and factual programme production. We know that conversations at the AIBs have led to new collaboration between producers, helping to create new alliances and co-productions. Don't miss out on this truly international opportunity.

Full information on tickets is available online at www.theaibs.tv - you can also use the QR code to go straight to the booking page.

All tickets include the champagne reception, followed by a three course dinner accompanied by fine wines (or non-alcoholic drinks), our traditional "in conversation" plus post-dinner networking and celebrations. Guests from AIB Member companies enjoy reduced price tickets, and there are also discounts for full table bookings.

For guests travelling from abroad, the AIB can help to arrange meetings with key people in UK media companies. Let us know well in advance who you are interested in meeting, and we will get to work on your behalf!

To reserve your seats at the AIBs 2023, scan the QR code or visit www.theaibs.tv

CONGRATULATIONS!

The Association for International Broadcasting is delighted to reveal the shortlist for this year's AIBs!

The AIBs recognise the highest standards in journalism and factual productions across TV, radio and digital platforms. Gaining a place on the shortlist is a significant achievement since the standard of entries across all our categories in 2023 has been, as ever, extraordinarily high - we extend our congratulations to all the shortlisted teams.

Our shortlist includes work from over 80 companies, or divisions of companies, from 23 countries, that have reached audiences globally in multiple languages.

It's an impressive range of work, and our global panel of judges are now tasked with evaluating the hundreds of hours of finalists' work to decide on the winner in each of the 20 categories.

The winners will be revealed at our traditional gala dinner on 10 November 2023.

Once again, we will be welcoming guests from all over the world to Church House Westminster in the heart of London for our 19th annual awards event.

The annual awards gala is an event you do not want to miss - so pop the date in your diary and reserve your tables or seats online at www.theaibs.tv.

We wish all our shortlisted entrants the very best of luck!

More information about the AIBs 2023 - and the past 18 editions of these global awards - is available online at www.theaibs.tv

ABOUT THE AIB

Established in 1993, AIB is the trade association for international TV, radio and digital broadcasting.

AIB provides its members with advocacy, intelligence, networking, promotion and a range of other key services.

Our members operate television, radio and digital services in multiple languages that, every week, reach well in excess of one billion people in almost every country on the planet. We also have companies that support media houses among our Membership.

A key area of work is our media freedom initiative. AIB is a Member of the Consultative Network to the intergovernmental Media Freedom Coalition. This places AIB at the heart of global work on media freedom.

The annual AIBs support our media freedom work, allowing us to demonstrate the importance of fair and impartial journalism and factual storytelling to key influencers in the Coalition.

Other areas of work include:

Big Tech – working with Members on relationships with Big Tech companies in markets globally

Cyber security – helping Members exchange information and engage with suppliers to protect their businesses

Sustainability – working with Members to make their businesses net zero and to engage audiences on issues around sustainability

Content sharing – facilitating Members' access to the output of colleagues around the world

Artificial Intelligence – sharing best practice in the fast developing role of AI in news organisations

The AIB draws on 30 years of knowledge gathering and intelligence sharing in the international media market to deliver outstanding support to our Members.

The Association's work is entirely centred on, and devoted to, the needs of our members.
